Prayer Diary

Monday 4th May:

On this Bank Holiday Monday, pray for those who have either the young or old to care for today. Pray that they would find the help and support they need to help them carry out such an important role.

Tuesday 5th May:

As our winter organisations draw to a close, pray for those who will miss the friendship and fellowship over the summer months. As God to show you someone that you could provide friendship for.

Wednesday 6th May:

Our Family and Community Worker, Amy Hunter, has had successful surgery on her hip. Pray for patience to allow her body to heal.

Thursday 7th May:

The church choir and band meet regularly on Thursday evenings to practise. Pray for them as they plan and prepare the music, hymns and songs that help us to praise God each Sunday.

Friday 8th May:

Tonight is the last night of FoG for this year. Pray that as the children enjoy their end of year party that they would remember the stories they have heard and that they would want to be followers of Jesus.

Saturday 9th May:

The Newtownabbey Street Pastors continue to be out on the streets of Glengormley every Friday and Saturday evening. The next training sessions will be starting at the end of May. Pray that more volunteers would come along so that the teams can work in other areas of Newtownabbey which have been identified.

Sunday 10th May:

Give thanks for the fellowship that the members of Men Together enjoy. Pray that as they lead our service this morning, we would all be encouraged and challenged in our walk with the Lord.
