Prayer Diary

“Don’t worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank Him for all He has done.”

Philippians 4: 6 New Living Testament.

Monday 22nd June: Continue to pray for Amy Hunter who is still suffering pain. Pray that she will soon be able to return to her work in the church.

Tuesday 23rd June: Pray for the Barnabas Fund who are providing shelter, aid and support to Syrian believers who are living in the midst of violence, hunger and homelessness. Islamic State Militants have attacked and seized many parts of the country, kidnapping and killing Christians who refuse to convert to Islam.

Wednesday 24th June: Pray for Alison and Kathryn Orr as they fly out tomorrow to Thailand. Alison will be attending a conference to mark the 150th anniversary of CIM/OMF. Kathryn is going as an OMF Service Asia worker to help with the children’s programme at the conference, at the end of which they will fly to Japan where they will meet up with many friends!

Thursday 25th June: Pray for Gloria and Sebastian giving thanks for their faithfulness. Pray for Sebastian as he leads the church which is small but continues to grow. Pray that his health will continue to be good.

Friday 26th June: June is the month of various Saints in Brazil including “John the Baptist”. Pray for the groups and congregations using the “Who really is John the Baptist?” – material which was prepared by Naomi Keefe. Pray that many more people will come to faith in Christ.

Saturday 27th June: Praise God for how the church in North East China helps North Koreans in many ways. Pray that the church there will continue to show the practical love of Jesus to the North Koreans on both sides of the border. Pray that the believers in the North will trust the Lord and rejoice in Him and attract others to the Lord who gives joy and salvation.

Sunday 28th June: As we meet together to worship the Lord let us also remember and pray for those in our church family who are unable to meet with us because of illness or family responsibility. Remember also those who are mourning the loss of loved ones.
