Prayer Diary

Monday 7th December: Give thanks for the 40 hours of prayer event which began last Friday evening. Our broken world, its leaders and its people all need the Light of Jesus to shatter the darkness of sin and sorrow. Be thankful that God hears our prayers, whether for global situations or our personal and private anxieties.

Tuesday 8th December: PW met last night for their Christmas evening. Gifts were collected for the men of Thompson House. Pray for David Farrow and all the staff who work in this difficult area. Pray that the men would see the Hope of the Gospel as it is lived out in practical and caring ways, offering real opportunities to change.

Wednesday 9th December: Pray and give thanks for the various ministries that build up fellowship, discipleship and friendship within our congregation. Pray for the Elders, Committee and leaders that they may seek God in all they do and decide, as we show God's love to our local community and further afield.

Thursday 10th December: Thursday is a busy day in our Church, with Parent and Toddlers, Thursday Together, Rainbows, Brownies and Guides, Choir and Band practice and Mosaic. Pray for all involved in these activities that God would open up opportunities to deepen faith and Christian love.

Friday 11th December: Pray for those who struggle at this time of year when loneliness and illness are in such contrast to the 'images of Christmas' that surround us. Pray that God's Presence would bring His peace to their 'storms' and that we might all remember that Christmas is about Jesus- Immanuel- the God who is always with us in every circumstance.

Saturday 12th December: Pray for those working in war-torn countries, often at great personal risk. Pray that even above the noise of war, God's peace –giving words might be heard. Pray for those far from family this Christmas because they are serving God in other countries.

Sunday 13th December: Praise God for His gifts to us especially His living Word. Thank Him today in worship for His blessings and pray that His Word speaks clearly and with authority, to all who hear. Pray for those who will attend carol services, that even familiar words would speak the message of Christmas afresh, so that its true meaning shines through.
