Prayer Diary

Monday 11th January 2016: Give thanks for all the outreach activities our church family participate in. May all those involved know Gods leading in this work. Pray also that each of us will play our part in making Glengormley a welcoming church to seekers of all ages in 2016.

Tuesday 12th January 2016: Our Lord Jesus began his earthly life in the poverty of a stable and ended it in the pain and isolation of the cross. So let us pray for all those who are cold and homeless in Belfast. May our Lord draw near and comfort them in spirit. Also give thanks for those who work to provide them with shelter, food and friendship.

Wednesday 13th January 2016: For some of our congregation, 2016 will bring trials and tribulations. However our Lord Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever, unchanging in wisdom, power and might. Pray that if it is within His will we will be protected from danger and delivered from our anxieties.

Thursday 14th January 2016: Uplift in prayer those families in our congregation who have suffered bereavements. Also give thanks for our minister and all those in our church family who have gathered round and sought to comfort and support the bereaved.

Friday 15th January 2016: Remember in prayer the situation in Syria where the civil war and the actions of Islamic State have brought about a great humanitarian crisis. Pray that the parties involved will find a feasible resolution to the conflict that will bring about a just peace and an end to the Islamic State caliphate.

Saturday 16th January 2016: There are many in our church family who are suffering serious illness. This is a time of worry and uncertainty. Uphold them and their families in prayer. Also remember our ministry team as they visit hospitals and homes providing spiritual support at a time of need.

Sunday 17th January 2016: We worship a God of compassion, whose will is for peace built on righteousness. So let us pray for peace between Arabs and Jews. Pray for this through Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace. Amen.

OFFICE HOURS: Thursdays 12.30—3.30pm and Sundays 10—11am.
