Prayer Diary

Prayer topics for this week:

Pray for the residents of Newtownabbey during the recent burglaries. Pray for safety and protection and, for those feeling scared, a sense of peace in their homes.

Pray for the elderly during the difficult winter months.

Pray for the life and witness of Glengormley Presbyterian. That the church would continue to be a source of light and hope for the community.

Thank God for the life groups and the connections made in these. Pray they might create an opportunity for growth and support for the members.

Focus today on the areas in Syria under siege by IS and cut off from food and medical supplies. Pray for a sense of God's presence amidst the chaos and that God might stir up our hearts to help these people. Also pray for those involved in IS that their hearts may be softened to the life changing gospel.

Thank God for our minister and his family and the elders and committee members. Pray that they might seek Your will when leading our church and that we as a congregation would support and encourage them.

Father thank You for Your Word and the opportunity to hear it. Pray that we would not just be listeners but doers of Your Word and that it would take root in our hearts so that we might give You all the glory.

OFFICE HOURS: Thursdays 12.30—3.30pm and Sundays 10—11am.
