Prayer Diary

Monday 15th February: Pray for the PW tonight as they put on a special Valentine's fun night for the church family. Pray that the event is well attended, they raise the necessary funds for their work and that people enjoy the fellowship together.

Tuesday 16th February: Pray for families over this half term holiday, that they will enjoy this break and time together. Pray for teachers to have a restful time to recharge their batteries after a busy start to the year.

Wednesday 17th February: Pray for those suffering with mental illness, most of the time in silence. Pray that they might know the peace of God. Ask that they would be shown kindness and understanding from others.

Thursday 18th February: Pray for Sue McKinstry and the rest of the property committee as they take on the job of tackling the building problems in our church. Ask for God's guidance as they make important decisions regarding this.

Friday 19th February: Pray for the young people in our church family as they approach a busy time in the school year. Pray for those picking GCSE subjects for next year that they would make wise choices. Ask for those rushing to finish off the last of coursework before the end of their deadlines to feel supported and not panicked.

Saturday 20th February: Pray for those who have suffered bereavements over the past year. Lift them up in prayer that they would know God's care for them in this difficult time. Pray that they will also feel supported by the congregation.

Sunday 21st February: "Praise unbroken, praise unending. Be yours, be yours forevermore. Praise untainted, praising unfading. Be yours, be yours forevermore" (Matt Redman) As we meet together this morning, pray that we might put all the worries and concerns of the week aside and spend time in God's presence worshiping him alone.
