(1) Voting members in the Church are communicants on the roll of the congregation who are listed, whether by name or number, as having contributed to the stipend or weekly freewill offering of the congregation in the last financial year.

(2) In addition to those so listed the following shall also be qualified, if themselves communicants on the roll -

(a) A wife shall be qualified on a husband's contribution, and vice versa, where both are communicants. This shall also apply should the contributor himself or herself not be a communicant. If neither husband nor wife in such circumstances is a communicant, then their contribution shall qualify the eldest child, residing in the family, who is on the communicants' roll.

(b) Should a contributor, who is not a communicant, be a member of a family residing together, then his contribution shall qualify the eldest member residing in the family who is on the communicants' roll.

(c) Those who have been added to the communicants' roll of the congregation since the close of the last financial year, upon confirmation by the treasurer that they have contributed during the current year, shall also be qualified voters.

Catering at Funerals

For sometime now we have struggled to cope with the demand upon our volunteers when funerals are held in our church, simply due to the increased demand over recent years. We wish to be in a position to offer the use of our church in such circumstances to all our members, so in order to do so, we have decided to place certain stipulations on the use of our halls for catering at funerals so that volunteers are not obliged to stay around for almost a full day. Here are our guidelines:

- 1) The church committee does not organise catering at funerals (this would oblige us in very strict food safety regulations).
- 2) The committee will make the church halls available for catering to family and friends of the deceased or we will offer a preferred list of outside caterers for the family to make arrangements with.
- 3) Catering after a funeral must be scheduled immediately after the service and before the committal service at the grave yard.
- 4) There will be a discretionary charge of £100 for the use of halls for catering at a funeral.

OFFICE HOURS: Thursdays 12.30—3.30pm and Sundays 10—11am.

OPEN DOOR: Mr Brice will be available in the Minister's Room on Thursdays from 11.30am to 12.30pm. You can call in or you may wish to phone in advance.

PRAYER BOX: Please leave any prayer requests in the box in vestibule.

RECORDINGS OF SUNDAY SERVICES are available from recording desk in the balcony.
