Prayer Diary

"You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart. I will be found by you," declares the LORD. Jeremiah 29 v 13 - 14

Monday 5th December: Praise God for whom he is and the unfathomable love he continually shows to us. Give him thanks for the many blessings received. Pray for peace in our land as we prepare to celebrate Christmas. Pray it will be a time of rejoicing as we remember the coming of our Saviour into the world.

Tuesday 6th December: Pray for the Church Committee members as we face a time of expensive repairs and alterations to the church property. Ask God to grant his wisdom and guidance to the property committee and all who are involved in planning and decision making in the months ahead.

Wednesday 7th December: Thank God for the freedom we have to worship in this land. But also pray for our brothers and sisters abroad who have lost jobs, property and even their lives because of their faith. Pray that those suffering would know God's love and strength at this time.

Thursday 8th December: Give thanks for all who lead and help in church organisations. Pray that the leaders and helpers would know God's wisdom and strength week by week as they show his love and his desire that all would know him.

Friday 9th December: Give thanks for our pastoral team for their dedication as they visit the elderly, the lonely and the grieving in the congregation. Pray that God would give them the right words to comfort the needy.

Saturday 10th December: Pray for our ministry team, that God would speak to us through them. Thank God for all who work behind the scenes during the weeks, months and years in making our place of worship worthy to his Great Name.

Sunday 11th December: Pray and give thanks for David Brice and George Moore, and those who lead in worship. Thank God for all who lead in praise. Thank him for their dedication and commitment week by week. Pray that God would speak to us through the message and the song. Pray for receptive hearts to receive God's word, so that we are better prepared to face the challenges that lie ahead.
