Services

Welcome to the Launch of our Roof and Renovation Fund Service. The theme for our service is "Welcome." With that in mind we are diverting from the normal, in that the sermon will take the form of two videos from the Close to Home Study (which we launched on Wednesday evening). The two videos are the last in the series and are called "Welcome - reflection" and "Welcome - Blessed to bless" We will also hear from some of our convenors as they keep us informed of the adventurous challenge that lies ahead for the congregation as we commit to an exciting future for the congregation.

CATERING AT FUNERALS: For sometime now we have struggled to cope with the demand upon our volunteers when funerals are held in our church, simply due to the increased demand over recent years. We wish to be in a position to offer the use of our church in such circumstances to all our members, so in order to do so, we have decided to place certain stipulations on the use of our halls for catering at funerals so that volunteers are not obliged to stay around for almost a full day. Here are our guidelines:

- 1) The church committee does not organise catering at funerals (this would oblige us in very strict food safety regulations).
- 2) The committee will make the church halls available for catering to family and friends of the deceased or we will offer a preferred list of outside caterers for the family to make arrangements with.
- 3) Catering after a funeral must be scheduled immediately after the service and before the committal service at the grave yard.
- 4) There will be a discretionary charge of £100 for the use of halls for catering at a funeral.

Give Thanks for Mosaic!
 Thanking Him for the provision each week in all our Teams, and for the activities that take place in Mosaic each month. Especially today, please give thanks for Isobel McKenna and her commitment to providing our Gardening Club, for Helen Duff for teaching our sewing enthusiasts, and for Gareth and Julie Lenaghan for encouraging & leading all our bookworms with new reads and brain stretching discussions.

Pray for our Kids Worship!

Please get involved on Sunday morning by taking part where you are in church, encouraging the kids around you and showing them how important Worshipping God is!

Pray for YOURSELF!
 Pray for this Sunday morning in church that you come with an EXPECTING HEART, to receive from The Holy Spirit, and a DISCIPLINE ATTITUDE of what YOU can do for God and those around you today.
