Prayer Diary

Monday 1st May: God's word tells us to pray for those in authority and rulers. So we have a duty to do so, even when there is much that frustrates and disappoints. Pray that God's gracious, guiding hand will be on the outcome of our political situation here and in the UK election coming soon.

Tuesday 2nd May: Often, Jesus told those who quoted scripture in their arguments to Him, that they were in error for they did not know the scripture. Pray today that we will all develop a strong faith foundation which will be able to take a stand against those who sow doubt and hostility on Christian belief. Pray too, that God's word will be put into actions by His followers, bringing honour to Him.

Wednesday 3rd May: Pray for those whose jobs are pressured and demanding – even at times overwhelming. Many jobs have changed in their nature and expectations, leaving the conscientious little time for anything else. Pray too, for those who do not have the employment they would dearly love to have. Pray that God will help each one to know their worth to Him and the inner peace that He alone can give.

Thursday 4th May: Thursday Together finishes for the summer today. Give thanks for the times of friendship and fellowship they have enjoyed over the last months. Pray that none will feel isolated or lonely over the summer months and that the faithful leaders and helpers will be refreshed by the break.

Friday 5th May: Pray for those planning new ventures for our Autumn's work. Ask God to guide those looking at youth and children's work and also new plans for Mosaic outreaches. Many hours of work go into preparation for all the events we have here, so ask that each leader will seek to serve God's work here in Glengormley wholeheartedly and draw strength from Him.

Saturday 6th May: Pray for the building work due to begin. Thank God for all those who have contributed finances, time and effort to get us to this stage. Ask God to protect all the workers involved on the project, so that the work is done in safety. Pray for opportunities to be 'salt and light' in the community as people wonder what is going on.

Sunday 7th May: Give thanks for the opportunity to keep meeting for worship in our Halls. We are privileged to have this accommodation, so pray that our praise will be sincere.

"Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for He who promised is faithful. And let us consider how we may spur one another on towards love and good deeds. Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another...." Hebrews 10:24&25
