Prayer Diary

 Pastor Abdalla, a church leader from Aleppo, Syria has courageously stayed in his city throughout the war to lead his church and serve his community. He believes that there is life and reconciliation coming back to Aleppo. His church has been able to build good relationships with both Christians and non-Christians alike. They have helped their community by providing support, food and medication. Please pray for Pastor Abdalla and his church and for the people they help, that God would continue to provide for and grow in their ministry.

 Pray for our young people as they begin to take on leadership roles in our church family. This may be in their school SU groups, on mission teams or in church organisations. Pray that they will be equipped to share their love of Jesus with those around them and also that they are given opportunities to grow deeper in their own relationship with God.

 Pray for our church treasurer, Mark Stevenson, as he undertakes the busy job of looking after the church finances. Thank God for his dedication and service as he gives of his time to ensure the practicalities are in place to ensure that the spiritual work can continue.

 Give thanks for the street pastors who are walking the streets of Newtownabbey. Ask God to sustain them in this vital work. Pray that God will guide them as they continue to listen, help and care for those with whom they come into contact with on Friday and Saturday nights.

 Pray for our Sunday Club as they meet together on Sunday morning. Thank God for those leaders and helpers who are willing to give of their time to share the Bible with our children. Ask God to help the children understand and respond to His word.
