Prayer Diary

Pray for the young people currently studying for and sitting exams, that they would feel calm and relaxed going into their examination, enabling them to perform at their best. Pray also for them as they anxiously await results over the summer.

As preparations are being made for our holiday bible club, remember Rebecca McKinstry and her team as they plan what they are going to teach the children each day. Pray that children will attend with receiving hearts and for safety as they partake in the various activities.

Pray for Matthew Horner as he serves on his placement in Lucan, that this would be an valuable and enjoyable learning experience for him. Pray too for his young children Naomi and Reuben and wife Helen as she juggles work and home life while Matthew is serving God 100 miles away from the family home.

As we are entering a time of vacancy in the congregation please pray for those in leadership positions, particularly our Clerk of Session Derek Kyle, Vacancy Convenor Rev Colin Morrison and convenors of Kirk Session and church committee, that they would know God's guidance as they make important decisions.

Remember Edgar and Sandra McKinney as they continue to serve at the Garden Tomb in Jerusalem. In particular as they face extreme temperatures and pressured situations, pray for their refreshment and renewal of physical, emotional and spiritual energies.
