Prayer Diary

✋ Pray for Moderator of PCI, Rt Rev Dr William Henry and his family, that their year may be fulfilling both personally and for the Church.

✋ Pray for those who work within Health & Social Care, especially in our hospitals. Remember staff as they try to deal with increasing numbers. Give thanks for the skills and knowledge of those within our health service.

✋ Pray for great wisdom, sensitivity and compassion for chaplains in hospitals across Northern Ireland as they seek to minister to patients, family and friends in various situations.

✋ Pray for our Congregational Committee Members and Elders as they meet this week with Rev Colin Morrison. Pray that God would guide them in the decisions they have to take.

✋ Give thanks for the large number of volunteers who give so much time to the work of Glengormley Presbyterian Church. Pray that those who are involved in organisations that take a break over the summer would be refreshed and God would give them a renewed vision of the work ahead. Pray that others would volunteer to share the load, especially for the tasks that go largely unseen.

✋ Pray for Sandra and Edgar McKinney as they continue to volunteer at the Garden Tomb. Give thanks for their sense of calling to this task even though it is so busy and warm. Pray that God would provide them with the energy they need.

✋ Pray for Alison Orr who is currently in Japan. Give thanks for the opportunities she has had to visit Kathryn and to meet those who have returned to Japan from Ireland. Pray for the preparations for the Japanese Returnee Retreat to be held at the end of June. Pray that more people will sign up and attend.
