TIDES BIBLE READING PROGRAME is a simple yet powerful resource to help develop regular rhythms of Bible reading. As part of the vision to resource whole life disciples across our church, the aim of Tides is to help God’s people discover afresh what regular engagement with God and His word can mean for their lives.

Tides aims to fuel the devotional lives of ordinary disciples through a rhythm of daily devotions that is accessible to all. Each weekday morning, Tides sends you an email with a section of God’s word to read, a short reflection sharing what this could mean for your life, and a simple way for you to respond. This is a home-grown resource, created and written by contributors from right across the Presbyterian Church in Ireland and currently being accessed by over 2,500 people.

If you are hungry to read God's Word, reflect on what He is saying and respond in your daily life then join this growing movement of Bible reading by registering at www.presbyterianireland.org/tides

Volunteers

People choose to volunteer for a variety of reasons. For some it offers the chance to give something back to the community or make a difference to the people around them. For others it provides an opportunity to develop new skills or build on existing experience and knowledge. Regardless of the motivation, what unites them all is that they find it both challenging and rewarding.

For Christians volunteering is one way of serving Christ. We cannot buy our way into heaven by doing good works but there is a biblical imperative to help others. Here are a few verses that point us towards this.

“You, my brothers and sisters, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the flesh; rather, serve one another humbly in love. For the entire law is fulfilled in keeping this one command: “Love your neighbour as yourself.” Galatians 5:13-14

“God is not unjust; he will not forget your work and the love you have shown him as you have helped his people and continue to help them.” Hebrews 6:10

There are different roles for volunteers within our church. If you feel that you would like to volunteer please contact the church office or speak to one of our elders who will be best placed to advise you about our activities.

Prayer Diary

Continue to pray for our church during this time of vacancy. Pray for Colin Morrison and our Kirk Session as they oversee the running of church.

Give thanks for leaders of organisations who are planning programmes for the year ahead. Pray that as the new year starts they would be encourage by the response they receive.

Give thanks for the many Christians who are involved in our schools as governors, teachers, principals, classroom assistants, support staff or volunteers. Pray that they might use the opportunities presented to them to build God’s Kingdom in their different roles.

Pray for all the children starting new schools this September, particularly those going into P1, Year 8 or changing schools for other reasons.

Harold McCauley House is PCI’s only nursing home, a 32-bed unit in Omagh, situated on the banks of the Camowen River. Pray for the residents as they settle into their daily routine, many looking forward to visits from family and friends; and for visitors, that they may be assured that their loved ones are settled and content.

The PCI Intern Scheme offers young adults the opportunity to serve in a congregation for a year. Pray for the interns being commissioned on Friday night that they would grow in their faith and develop their leadership, and that congregations would be encouraged by their ministry.

Glengormley Presbyterian Church is currently in vacancy. In the event of a pastoral emergency where a minister is required, please contact the vacancy convenor, Rev. Colin Morrison on 028 90770301. For all other enquiries please contact the Clerk of Session, Mr Derek Kyle, on 028 9335 2536.
