Easter Leaflet: A leaflet to promote Easter services and social events is going to be distributed by elders to members of the congregation at the beginning of April and we would like to include information about any Easter activities held by church groups and organisations and, perhaps also, relevant local special events which might be of interest. The dates are flexible but roughly from the beginning of April until about the end of Easter week, Sunday 19th April. Please let the office know the following details:

- Name of service, group or event
- A sentence or two about it e.g. theme, fundraiser etc
- Who is invited e.g. friends, family, age group etc
- Where it takes place
- When it takes place
- Any contact details

We would be grateful if all information could be returned to the office at office@glengormley.org or hand to Julie Lenaghan or the office by Sunday 23rd February.
