Prayer Diary

Weekly Let's Pray resources can be downloaded from PCI website at www.presbyterianireland.org/resources/prayer/let-s-pray.aspx

Sunday

Give thanks for in-person worship. Pray that as we reconnect with each other that God would lead us to make wise decisions on future ministries to engage in.

Monday

Ask God to help us be generous about approaching the lifting of restrictions on what we can do, remembering not only that we need to bring members back together, but that we have a part to play in helping others know God's truth and touch as they recover from the effects of the Covid-19 pandemic.

Tuesday

Pray for the millions of people around the world who are living as refugees or are internally displaced. Pray that they will receive humanitarian assistance, medical care and opportunities to work and for children to receive an education, as they strive to rebuild their lives. Pray that many will find hope in Christ.

Wednesday

Pray for PCI's overseas partners in countries supported by the Moderator's Appeal to address the needs of Covid-19. Thank God for the generous response for the church to this appeal (which is still open).

Thursday

Pray for Reuben, George and Jim as they pastor those in need over the summer. Pray that they too would be able to enjoy time away to reflect and recharge ready for new church year which will probably have many restrictions.

Friday

Pray for the protection of all residents and tenants, staff and families connected with nursing and residential homes, as levels of coronavirus again rise. Pray that homes and units will not have to close to visitors and that a high level of vigilance will be sustained to ensure maximum protection.

Saturday

Give thanks for the hospice movement, and for medical staff and others who care for terminally ill patients. Pray that politicians and policy makers would prioritise palliative care over attempts to legalise assisted dying in the UK and Ireland.
