Community Notices

Sunday 16 January

'Praise the Lord, all you nations; extol him, all you peoples.' Psalm 117:1. As we worship today ask God to increase our awareness that we participate in the worship of the worldwide people of God.

Pray for our young people as they meet tonight at Youth Fellowship. Pray that they would enjoy meeting together but also that they would be strengthened in their faith in Christ. Give thanks for the leaders who have given time to prepare and meet with our young people.

Monday 17 January

Presbyteries will seek to elect a new Moderator of the General Assembly on 1 February. Pray for a successful outcome, and for the Moderator elect, as they will begin a journey of preparation for their new responsibilities in June.

Pray for Reuben as he prepares for Sunday worship. Pray that he would find time to read and prepare without distractions. Pray also that the whole family would be able to spend time together.

Tuesday 18 January

Preparations are underway for PCI Talks Education at Assembly Buildings on Saturday 29 January. Give thanks for all those across PCI who serve in various roles in the education sector, and pray that this morning would provide an opportunity to encourage and envision all those involved.

Pray for our Congregational Committee Meeting tonight. Pray that God would help members to make wise decisions about how to use our church finances, property and media to glorify Him.

Wednesday 19 January

Pray for leaders and members of the Presbyterian Church of Pakistan as they live out their faith in Christ. Pray for strength and protection for Christians suffering persecution in Pakistan and around the world.

Pray for our GLOW leaders as they prepare to meet with our children on Sunday morning. Pray that as they share the stories of Jesus that our children would deepen their faith in Him.

Thursday 20 January

Pray for the work and witness of the Presbyterian Church of South Sudan. Pray for those that are dependent on food aid and for the church as they seek to help. Pray too for peace, justice and political progress.

Pray for all those who will meet at Parents and Toddlers today. Give thanks for the leaders who will share the love of Christ with those that come along.

Friday 21 January

The New Year can be especially difficult for those with mental health problems. Give thanks for volunteers who staff helplines at this demanding time of year. Give thanks too for resources and television campaigns that promote the importance of seeking help and of talking through issues.

Pray for the children who will meet at Friday Club tonight, that as they hear about Jesus they will want to make him Lord of their lives. Give thanks for the leaders who give time to prepare and meet with the children.

Saturday 22 January

Licentiates, or assistant ministers, are placed in congregations to continue their training 'on the job'. An important part of this is supervision by the minister of the congregation. Pray for these ministers as they meet to be trained in this vital role on Thursday 27 January. Pray for Professor David Leach as he leads this. Give thanks for all those who give of their time and talents to enable us to meet together to worship each week. Pray that as we prepare to meet on Sunday that we would be eager to hear what God has to say to each one of us.
