Prayer Diary

Sunday 26 June: How good and pleasant it is when God's people live together in unity! Psalm 133:1. Give thanks that the local church is one of the few remaining places in society in which people of different ages, backgrounds and perspectives come together as one and ask that this oneness in Christ may find expression in your worship today.

Monday 27 June: Pray for an immediate ceasefire and an end to the war in Ukraine. Pray for all directly affected – especially those grieving, the injured and the millions living in constant fear for themselves and / or their loved ones. Pray too for the Christian community in Ukraine as they continue to worship God and pray for their country.

Tuesday 28 June: Pray for those who have fled conflict in Ukraine and in others parts of the world. Pray they will find safety and receive the humanitarian and medical assistance they need, both now and in the months ahead. Pray for all trying to get aid to those in need including Christian Aid, Tearfund and Hungarian Reformed Church Aid.

Wednesday 29 June: The work of our forces chaplains requires that they be away from home and absent from their families for long periods of time. Pray that chaplains and their families will know how sufficient the grace of God is for such times of separation.

Thursday 30 June: The Specialist Services Committee of PCI oversees the work of Carlisle House, Thompson House and Gray's Court – facilities which offer care and services to those with addictions, past offending behaviour and who require short/mid-term supported housing. Give thanks for the service the staff at each facility offer. Pray also for wisdom for their respective team leaders, David Cuthbert, David Farrow and Frances Craig.

Friday 1 July: Pray for those who find the school holiday period challenging due to complexities in home life, financial uncertainty, or missing the routine and structure that term time brings. Pray that families would be able to access appropriate support, and that we would have eyes to see those whom we can draw alongside at these times.

Saturday 2 July: The Accredited Preachers Scheme meets next week for intensive teaching in Union College. Pray for the trainees, that the Lord will equip them to serve him in this way in his Church. Pray too for the teachers. Pray for existing Accredited Preachers as they preach in congregations throughout Ireland.
