Discipleship Notices

MID-WEEK meets on Wednesday 5th October at 7:30pm (please note time) in the Burney Room. Everyone welcome.

IMMERSE: What is it? "Immerse" is an eight-week Bible reading programme which seeks to refresh approaches to reading Scripture and deepen faith.

It seeks to do this by encountering the whole of the New Testament in a different translation (NLT) in a format which:

- removes chapters, verses and sub-headings;
- creates a more recognisable reading experience with single column text;
- reshapes the order of the NT to provide a more evenly paced experience for the reader.

Who is it for? The Bible reading programme is open to all church members who will also be encouraged to bring friends who might be interested in reading the Bible for themselves.

When will it take place? The eight-week period will begin in the middle of October and continue through to the middle of December. A draft outline is indicated below:

October – 16th/23rd/30th;

Break

November – 13th/20th/27th;

December – 4th/11th.

Each session will begin with tea, coffee and cake at 6:30 on Sunday evenings.

Tuesday 4 October

David Boyd (Irish mission worker, Dublin) | Pray for the International Café as it recommences after the summer break; that connections can be made with many new students and that they would be led to Jesus. Pray for the Kirk Session as they investigate ways to expand their work to include home grown students.
