Prayer Diary

Sunday 30 October: My sacrifice, O God, is a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart you, God, will not despise. Psalm 51:17. Give thanks that God accepts us as we come humbly before him and ask that experiencing his presence in worship today might better shape our hearts to live for him.

Monday 31 October: Church of Central Africa Presbyterian Malawi - Pray for the Church's witness in the current context of chronic food insecurity, fuel shortages, power blackouts, and soaring prices.

Tuesday 1 November: Pray for care staff within our residential and nursing facilities – particularly those caring for residents at end of life. This specialist care can often be both physically and emotionally demanding; however, it can also be rewarding and humbling. Pray that staff will be able to share the Lord's strength and encouragement with residents and their families.

Wednesday 2 November: Iona and Csaba Veres (global mission workers, Romania) | Give thanks for the Diakonia children's ministry in Salaj and Cluj counties. Pray especially for the Friday good news clubs, that children would encounter Jesus.

Thursday 3 November: Give thanks for PCI's University and College chaplains and for their ministry and mission to students throughout the island of Ireland. Pray for students in third level education, that they would know the Lord Jesus as their personal Saviour and grow as his disciples.

Friday 4 November: Pray for those who have arrived in Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland seeking asylum and who find themselves in hotel accommodation or Direction Provision centres. Pray that they would be able to access the services they need – health, education etc. – and that they would be able to make positive connections with one another and people in the community, including local congregations.

Saturday 5 November: The pre-retirement conference for ministers and spouses is planned for Tuesday-Thursday of next week. Retirement for ministers involves leaving their home, their church family, and coming to terms with a completely different pattern of life. Through the conference, the Church seeks to help them prepare for this. Pray that the Lord would bless every aspect of it and all who attend
